love conquers all think on these things possibilities now and forever my heart's love imagine as if faithful friend first last always truth free sound of silence thoughtful nature's beauty give thanks by grace alone majestic final cut on eagle's wings fanciful always and forever all the little things full of life happy times thoughtful truly outstanding lazy days without a care understand this one a final offer a caring heart always and forever time to play time after time one in a million the good life
